Menial Staff of the M. of's

File No. of 193 6 General and Re Secretariat

Y [illegible] dated 20th September 1932 lays down that the number of peons allowed for work in the residences of Heads of Depts. may vary from 3 to 4. As the Revenue Comr. is given 11 peons (including the Jamedar and Daffedar of his office) besides one lascar and one watchman, the officer holding the post of Inspr Comr. will easily be able to secure the number of home orderlies allowed for him by the G.O. of 20th Sept. 1932 - out of the 11 peons menials of the Revenue Commissioner's office. He may however choose one peon home orderly from the menial establishment of the Inspr Commissioner's office; if he chooses only 3 menials of the Revenue Commissioner's office. And the remaining two peons would seem to be enough for the work in the Inspr Commissioner's office. Since there will be sufficient number of peons of the Revenue Comr.'s office to reserve as personal orderlies of the Revenue Comr. and ex-officio Inspr Comr., it is a point for consideration whether the number of menials of the Survey and Comm.'s office is not capable of being reduced from four to three. It is also a point for consideration whether the Financial Sectt. should not be consulted in case the scale of Women orderlies allowed to heads of Depts. in the G.O. No. Fl. 1660-1720 dated 20th Sept. 1932 is G.F. 59-31-2 was exceeded.

(Please see

FINANCIAL SECRETARIAT C.S.M. Fl....66..... 6. JUL 1935 SECRET

The Muzrai Commissioner reported in his letter No. 376/31-32 dated 23rd October 1933 that it was not possible to retrench an orderly immediately but that the retrenchment would be kept in view when the next permanent vacancy would arise. This would seem to imply that one orderly could be surrendered as excess against the occurrence of a future vacancy. Now that a vacancy has arisen, it is for consideration why the excess peon should not be retrenched to regularise the scale of orderlies according to G.O. No. Fl.1660-1720/G.F. 59-31-2 dated 20th September 1932. The Muzrai Commissioner may, I think, be requested to

K.V. Anantaraman Esq., B.A.,

Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore,

Reduction of one peon in the menial establishment of the Muzrai Commissioner's Office.

SIR,

F.C. 15.6.35 1376

I have the honor to state that in this office letter No. C.376/31-32 dated 25-10-1933 to the Financial Secretary to Government, it was intimated that the proposed retrenchment of a peon's place would be kept in view when the next permanent vacancy occurred. The Daffedar of this office has applied for retirement on payment of gratuity due to him under the Rules.

2. The present menial establishment of this office consists of 1 Daffedar, 3 peons and 1 watchman, which, as experience has shown, is very inadequate. As a result of the revision of the Establishment in 1928, the number of menials originally sanctioned for this office when it was constituted in 1922, was reduced by one hand (vide page 154 of the revised Muzrai Manual). A further reduction does not appear to be possible without causing much inconvenience.

3. I request that in view of the above circumstances, the continuance of the present menial strength of this office may be sanctioned, in modification of the order of retrenchment issued by the Financial Department.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.
